

The background of the image is a photograph of ancient stone ruins, likely from a Roman or Greek site. The ruins consist of several walls and foundations made of large, roughly-hewn stone blocks. The scene is captured in a sepia or brownish tone, giving it an aged and historical appearance. The text is overlaid on this background.

EACH HAS A GIFT

EPHESIANS 4:7-11

The background of the image shows ancient stone ruins, likely a wall or foundation, constructed from large, irregular blocks of light-colored stone. The scene is dimly lit, with a dark, moody atmosphere. A white rectangular border frames the central text area.

Unity is more than getting along with each other. (Eph. 4:3, 13, 16)

The background of the slide is a photograph of ancient stone ruins, possibly a wall or foundation, with a white border. The text is overlaid on this image.

Tonight we want to focus in on vv.7-11 with v.7 being our focus.

CHRIST'S GRACIOUS GIFTS

The background image shows ancient stone ruins, possibly a wall or a platform, made of large, irregular blocks of light-colored stone. The scene is dimly lit, with shadows highlighting the textures of the masonry. A white rectangular border frames the central text area.

WHAT ARE THE GIFTS?

The background of the image shows ancient stone ruins, likely from a biblical site, with a warm, golden-brown color palette. The ruins consist of various stone blocks and walls, some of which are partially collapsed or overgrown with vegetation. The lighting is soft, creating a sense of history and tranquility.

For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith; or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; he who teaches, in teaching; he who exhorts, in exhortation; he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.
