

A photograph of a classroom. In the foreground, there are several rows of blue-topped tables with orange chairs. In the background, a green chalkboard is mounted on a white wall. To the left of the chalkboard is a whiteboard with some faint writing. Above the whiteboard is a framed picture of a coat of arms. The right wall is covered in wood paneling.

How to Teach Ephesians 4:15

How to Teach:

Ephesians 4:15

- What Is Teaching?
  - Teaching at its most basic level is to “cause to know something” (Merriam-Webster).
  - Christianity is a teaching religion.
Mark 4:1; Matt. 28:19-20
  - Every Christian is to be involved in teaching. Acts 8:4; Heb. 5:11
  - The goal of all teaching is a transformative knowledge of God. Eph. 4:11-16

How to Teach:

Ephesians 4:15

- How To Teach Well:
  - Embody the teaching.
2 Tim. 2:24-26; 1 Cor. 11:1
  - Know your audience.
Acts 2:14-16; 8:29-35; 17:22
  - Prepare well. Luke 14:28-30
  - Share what you know in love.
Neh. 8:8; Eph. 4:15

How to Teach:

Ephesians 4:15

- Practical Tips for Teaching:
  - Remember teaching is a privilege not a right. Some forget this!
  - Good Bible teaching starts with good Bible reading/studying. 2 Tim. 2:15
  - Re-read and re-study for each class.
  - Prepare for Bible class like you are teaching. Heb. 5:11